A Biblical Spirituality

Biblical Spirituality. A Biblical spirituality is seeking to be holy as God the Father is holy in an intimate communion or relationship with Him through union with Christ by His Spirit (2 Cor. 13:14; John 14:21, 23; 1 Pet. 1:16-17). A Biblical spirituality is a desire to know, love, obey, and experience God as Father from the heart while fearing and reverencing Him as Supreme God and Lord (John 17:3; John 15:9-11; Rom. 6:4-6, 11-17; Eph. 3:14-21). Biblical spirituality expresses itself in the words of our forefather John Calvin: “I offer Thee my heart, O LORD, promptly and sincerely.” A Biblical spirituality is not first and foremost an emotional experience; it is not always necessarily an emotional experience (although there is nothing wrong with praying for and expecting this). But true Biblical spirituality is a seeking to know, love, obey, and experience God as He is revealed in Holy Scripture, and especially as He has revealed Himself in Christ, and seeking to understand, as well as be transformed by this truth (Rom. 12:2).

Trinitarian Spirituality. A Biblical spirituality is always Trinitarian. The goal of Biblical spirituality is to glorify and delight in the Triune God and to enjoy Him (Eph. 1:3-14; Rom. 11:33-36; 1 Cor. 10:31). There are false and dangerous spiritualities bandied about today that seek false hopes through false gods and saviors. This is not Biblical spirituality but demonic spirituality of which we must be careful (1 Cor. 10:19-22; Acts 13:10, 16:16-18; 1 Tim. 3:7, 4:1; Rev. 9:20, 16:14). A Biblical, Trinitarian spirituality teaches believers to go boldly and courageously to the Father, through the Son, our provided Mediator, by the Spirit (Eph. 2:18; cf. 1 Tim. 2:5). All Persons of the Godhead are equal in substance, power and being, and yet they all three perform specific aspects of our salvation as the one God. In Biblical spirituality, this ought to be recognized. Believers should seek to have a relationship with the one God through each Person of the Trinity by praising and enjoying God the Father’s love for us in Christ, adoring the grace of the Son as our Savior, Bridegroom, Mediator, Friend, and King, and living in fellowship with the Holy Spirit and in communion with one another as members of Christ’s one Church! As the Apostle Paul summarizes this Trinitarian spirituality:

“The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.” (2 Corinthians 13:14)

Christ-focused Spirituality. Though some spiritualities in Christian history have emphasized the importance of the imitation of Christ, they have sometimes failed to place Christ first and central in our reflection upon this imitation. Biblical spirituality is a Christ-focused spirituality (Phil. 2:1-11; Heb. 12:1-2). Christ is our Savior first. He is the Savior of our souls, but He is also our example. The Apostle Peter wrote: “For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps” (1 Pet. 2:21; cf. 1 Cor. 11:1). Focus on Christ’s suffering in your place as a propitiation for your sins, then see Him as an example of how you should live, seeking God the Father.

Communal and Personal/Public and Private Spirituality. A Biblical spirituality is both communal and personal, it is concerned with the visible church and with our personal pursuits of “quiet time” with God. Biblical spirituality steers a clear path through the Scylla of Sacramentalism, and the Charybdis of Individualism; it seeks the means of grace in the Word of God, the Sacraments, corporate fellowship and prayer, but it also seeks the LORD individually each day through the word and in prayer through private devotions, memorization and meditation on the Bible (Psa. 5:3; Mark 1:35; Matt. 6:1-17).

A Spirituality for Everyone! Do you desire to be spiritual? It’s not just for monks! Do you desire to be spiritual as you are called to be as a Christian (Gal. 6:1-2)? If you are united to Christ Jesus by His Spirit, and if you are a child of the Heavenly Father through faith in Christ, then you are indeed “spiritual”—that is, you possess the Holy Spirit (Rom. 8:9-11). Do you want to be spiritual? Then become who you already are in Christ, and mature in Him by His Spirit, walking with Him, trusting Him, knowing Him, obeying Him. Seek to earnestly live this biblical spirituality out in your daily life in reliance upon His grace. Do you want to know more of God’s love for you in Christ? Do you want to possess more of the fullness of grace and joy that is found within Christ? Ask Him for it. Walk in obedience because of His love (John 15:9-11).

In Christ’s Love,
Pastor Biggs

“Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.”
